Discipline you compete in please circle Dressage - Showjumping - Eventing - Showing

Please give a brief description of the level in your discipline you are currently training at.

We offer a daily riding lessons from a qualified instructor on a designated horse, daily English lessons from a qualified English teacher, the opportunity to compete in local competitions, subject to availability, as well as the opportunity to see Australia. We can arrange everything from local car rentals, accommodation and assistance to book any excursions or trips within Australia.

Our charges are based on 2 weeks, or 4 weeks stays but longer can be arranged. The weekly fee include full access to the horse, daily riding lessons and daily English lessons Monday to Friday. Weekends are free for own activities or competitions if available.

Our fees does not include accommodation, meals, car rental, airfares or any options like competitions or excursions .

We anticipate that you already have a reasonable understanding of English because the riding lessons are in English.
